(c) the practice that is followed when promotions are granted in the University;

(d) whether any persons have been promoted in the University superseding their seniors;

(e) if so, the reasons therefor?

A.—Sri T. SIDDALINGAIYA (Minister for Education and Public Health).—

(a) 30.

(b) A copy of statement appended (below). The year of taking such Degree is given wherever it was readily available.

(c) Promotions in the cadre of Lecturers, that is, from Class III to Class II and from Class II to Class I are made strictly according to seniority and approved service. Promotions to the cadres of Class I Assistant Professors and Class I Professors are also made according to seniority.

Vacancies in the cadre of Professors, Class II, are filled up by advertisement. Vacancies in the cadre of Assistant Professors, Class II, are filled up either by advertisement or by selection as determined by the University Council and approved by Government in respect of each vacancy.

(d) This does not arise in the case of Lecturers, Assistant Professors, Class I, and Professors, Class I.

As the mode of filling up of vacancies in the cadre of Class II Professors and Class II Assistant Professors is by advertisement and selection, the question of supersession does not arise in filling up vacancies in these cadres.

(e) This does not arise in view of reply to clause (d) above.
